Holiday Breakfast: Thank you to everyone from the PTG to the many parent volunteers to Deirdre taking pictures, who made the day such a success! There was a steady crowd and everyone looked to have a wonderful time!

Cookies for Teachers: Wow- what a spread! The teachers were so appreciative of all that you made and made possible for treats the week before the break! Thank you!

Book Fair: The idea of pushing the Book Fair to December really seemed to make sense and work out well. It was well attended starting with the Holiday Breakfast and many parents attended during conferences. Thank you to our Book Fair crew for keeping books stocked, attending to kids needs and in general, your support!

Parent Teacher Conferences : Teachers really enjoyed having the opportunity to touch base and share out on all that your children are working on at conferences. We had our excellent turnout and did a pretty good job of staying on schedule!
